Bangkok is chosen as the best city for traveling in 2013. It defeats London, Paris and many other famous cities to become the first Asian city which gets the prize. Why is Bangkok popular with tourists? First, you can have delicious food in fine restaurants without paying much. Second, choosing a hotel for a stay isn't difficult at all because there are thousands of hotels in every price range. Families, lovers and backpackers can find their favorite hotel easily. If you like shopping, you can't miss wide markets in Bangkok. It's the dream city for shoppers.

Most importantly, people in Bangkok are friendly to tourists. Though they don't speak English well, they're glad to help. And they don't cheat. Some say their religion makes them kind and honest to people. However, most tourists may not put up with traffic jams which can be seen in many parts of this city. They really hope they can spend more time in a night market but not in a taxi.
