(一) Here are the lyrics of a song.

A Song For You
by Richard Lee
A beautiful song I want to share with you
A song written just for you
A simple song but it talks more than words
No hard words but a simple one to be understood
The song is neither for the piano nor the guitar
It is just a simple song for you
Although time lets us stay away from each other
But I know it is what is known as “missing”
It is never a story about the prince and the princess
But a song just about two of us
Maybe it is only at midnight
I know how strongly I miss you
And at this moment
Only the moon knows
I miss you

Have you ever listened to rock music? If you have, you will know it can be as loud as the sound of a plane taking off and this can seriously hurt our ears. Mothers in America try very hard to stop their kids from listening to such music.
Kathy Peck, a rock music singer, did what those mothers did: Ask her fans to turn down the music. But why did Kathy do so? She lost half of the hearing in her left ear and she didn’t want other rock stars and her fans to be like her. Then she founded H.E.A.R. to help keep people from losing their hearing. It helped rock singers, rock music players and rock fans a lot.
“Hearing loss usually happens to rock singers and rock music players,” Kathy said, “but we need a pair of good ears to make good music so that we can rock the music.” Today, more and more singers are trying to keep their voices down when they sing, and music players don’t play music so loudly anymore. That’s what Kathy wishes to do: Rock music doesn’t have to be that noisy and it can be liked by everyone!
